

Representative Legal Matters

James Burdett

Middle East

- Aldar Properties on its AED 400 million investment in two European private real estate credit platforms alongside an Abu Dhabi sovereign wealth fund and Ares Management Corp.
- ADQ in relation to its co-investments alongside funds managed by Further Global into a number of portfolio companies.
- ADQ in relation to private equity fund investments.
- Olayan on numerous private equity, real estate and venture capital investments and co-investments globally.
- Sovereign wealth fund on the establishment of The Egypt Fund, Egypt's sovereign development fund.

Europe and Global

- Institutional investor on its participation in a co-investment alongside Brookfield-managed funds in relation to a take-private transaction led by Brookfield (target company is listed on London Stock Exchange and takeover is being effected by scheme of arrangement).
- Institutional investor on its participation in a co-investment alongside EQT-managed funds in a take-private transaction led by EQT (target company is listed on the London Stock Exchange).
- GIC on a number of co-investment transactions alongside private equity and infrastructure fund sponsors.
- Earth Capital Partners in relation to the formation of a UK fund advisor and Guernsey fund structures.
- Ardian on establishment of private equity secondary fund of funds.
- Private investment firm on the circa USD 800m sale of a portfolio of 95 private equity fund interests to a combination of secondary fund.
- Global real estate fund manager on the establishment of a USD 1.5 billion global real estate separate managed account fund for an Asian sovereign fund.
- Mitsubishi UFJ on the USD 2.7 billion acquisition of First State Investments, the global fund management platform of Commonwealth Bank of Australia.
- Institutional investor on its participation in a consortium of investors for the GBP 809 million acquisition of 21 Moorfields, the new City of London headquarters for Deutsche Bank., from Land Securities plc.

Baker McKenzie.

- LPs of a European real estate fund in relation to the end of life of the fund and the secondary sale of the tail-end portfolio assets to a new fund managed by the existing manager.
- A group of financial investors on the proposed buyout of a significant co-investment interest in a fund held by the GP/manager's affiliate and related spin-out of GP team.
- Townsend Holdings LLC on a number of real estate fund transactions and co-investments in logistics, office and industrial assets.
- The LP Advisory Committee of Arcus European Infrastructure Fund I in relation to the extension of the life of that fund and re-negotiation of certain fund terms.
- Mapletree (real estate investment arm of Temasek) on several significant real estate investments in UK, Europe and the US.
- Government of Singapore Investment Corporation on its investment into European energy assets alongside Bluewater Energy
- Employees Provident Fund of Malaysia on the establishment of a European industrial real estate development fund platform with German real estate developer, Dietz AG.
- A number of Asian, Middle Eastern and European sovereign wealth funds on their private equity, real estate and infrastructure investments globally, and regulatory matters.
- Government Pension Fund of Thailand on establishment of global real estate and private equity investment platforms with third party managers.
- Japan Bank for International Cooperation on the establishment of a Development Fund with another sovereign wealth fund.
- Sovereign wealth fund on the establishment of INA, Indonesia's sovereign wealth fund.
- Arcus Infrastructure Partners on several infrastructure acquisitions and financings across various asset classes including logistics, data centres and fibre optic cable networks.