Baker & McKenzie has been ranked among the Top Law Firms for Diversity by MultiCultural Law Magazine for eight consecutive years.

Baker & McKenzie has been ranked among the Best Places to Work for LGBT Equality by the Human Rights Campaign for six consecutive years.

Baker & McKenzie is committed to the recruitment of a diverse workforce. We understand that organizations work best when people with different backgrounds and multiple points of view are brought together. We believe that this understanding allows us to better serve the rapidly changing needs of our clients across the world.

The Baker & McKenzie Diversity Fellowship Program furthers our commitment to recruit, retain, and develop talented lawyers who will contribute to the advancement of diversity within the firm as well as the creation of a more inclusive legal profession.

Fellowship Benefits

The Baker & McKenzie Diversity Fellowships are awarded to qualified second-year law students who show promise of contributing meaningfully to the diversity of the legal community. Each recipient receives $10,000 and a summer associate position at one of Baker & McKenzie's NA offices the summer following the completion of his or her second year of law school.

Eligibility Criteria

Must meet the academic and hiring criteria of Baker & McKenzie's summer associate program; receive an offer of summer employment for their second-year summer; be a member of a population that historically has been underrepresented in the legal profession; and complete an application form and brief personal statement.

Application Process

To apply, please visit www.bakermckenzie.com/diversityfellowship where you will be asked to submit the following documents:

- A copy of your current résumé
- A copy of your undergraduate transcript
- A copy of your law school transcript
- A personal statement, not to exceed 500 words, which describes your talents, qualities, and experiences and how you would contribute to Baker & McKenzie's diversity and inclusion efforts
