

2001

Porto Alegre, Brazil

Trench, Rossi e Watanabe enters Port Alegre, an important port for the country and one of the primary industrial and commercial centers in Brazil.

1995

Santiago, Chile

The Firm acquires a local firm with more than 45 years of local experience, quickly becoming one of the largest and leading law firms in the country based in Santiago.

1993

Brasilia, Brazil

Trench Rossi grows its network with a new office located in the heart of Brasilia, the nation's capital.

1986

Juarez & Tijuana, Mexico

In the same year, the Firm opens an office in Juarez providing a strategic location in one of North America's major points of entry and transportation into the U.S., and in Tijuana, a major industrial and financial center of Mexico.

1979

Bogota, Colombia

Baker & McKenzie merges with a leading local firm operating in Colombia since 1937, opening its doors to clients with more than 40 years of deep local knowledge and international capabilities.

1961

Mexico City, Mexico

Mexico City becomes the first office opened by Baker in the country, laying the foundation for the largest law firm in Mexico.

1955

Caracas, Venezuela

Baker & McKenzie opens our Caracas office - the second office in its history and first office outside of the US - the start of what would eventually become an unmatched global legal network.

2012

Lima, Peru

Baker & McKenzie becomes the first global firm to establish a presence in Peru with the integration of Estudio Echeopar, a local firm with more than 60 years of successful operations in the country before joining Baker.

2000

Guadalajara, Mexico

Baker & McKenzie adds a fifth Mexico office in Guadalajara, entering the new millennium as the largest law firm in the country.

1994

Monterrey, Mexico

Baker arrives in Monterrey, a major commercial center for Mexico which is home to many international corporations with a presence in the country.

1987

Valencia, Venezuela

Baker & McKenzie adds an office in Valencia, an economic hub for Venezuela's top industries and manufacturing companies, solidifying the Firm's profile as the largest law firm in the country.

1981

Buenos Aires, Argentina

Baker opens its doors in the Argentinian capital, quickly establishing itself as one of the leading international firms in the country.

1967

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Trench, Rossi e Watanabe expands its network to Rio de Janeiro, establishing an office in Brazil's second largest city.

1959

São Paulo, Brazil

Baker establishes a cooperation agreement with Brazilian law firm Trench, Rossi e Watanabe Advogados, forging a relationship with one of the country's leading firms in supporting local and international clients.

Baker & McKenzie Latin America Today

Largest Law Firm in Latin America | 7 countries | 15 offices | A combined total of more than 570 years of experience | More than 745 attorneys