

Representative Legal Matters

Jonathan S. Farrokhnia

Mergers and Acquisitions

- Represented an NYSE-listed multinational manufacturer of recreational vehicles on its EUR 2.1 billion acquisition of a privately-held German-based manufacturer of recreational vehicles.
- Represented a global pharmaceutical company on the USD 1.95 billion acquisition of a migraine treatment and prevention company.
- Represented a global tax services and software provider in connection with the USD 317 million sale of a 42% interest in the company to a private equity fund.
- Represented the sellers in the USD 489 million sale of an exchange-traded fund provider.
- Represented a multinational corporation in the USD 158 million purchase of a group of companies that provide electrical transmission services in South America.
- Represented a private equity seller in the USD 163 million acquisition of a multinational insurance services company to a private equity firm.
- Represented a publicly traded, China-based paper manufacturer in connection with the acquisition of a shuttered paper mill, with an initial investment commitment of USD 166 million.
- Represented a sponsor of ETFs in its merger with a South Korea-based global investment manager.
- Represented a midstream energy company in connection with the sale of a petroleum product terminal and crude processing unit located in Corpus Christi, Texas.
- Represented a Spanish natural gas and electrical energy utilities company in its acquisition of a 40% stake in a solar and energy storage development platform in the United States.
- Represented a video game holding company in the acquisition of a game developer for USD 100 million in cash and equity.
- Represented a Japanese multinational electronics corporation in the acquisition of a U.S.-based venture-backed company engaged in the design of advanced power semiconductor ICs.
- Represented a family-owned food company based in Colombia on its purchase of 70% of a California dairy producer.

Baker McKenzie.

- Represented a Spanish energy company in the USD 661 million sale of its 45.4% equity stake in a Chilean gas port terminal and regasification plant to a consortium formed by an American infrastructure investor and Belgian gas utility company.
- Represented an American engine manufacturer in its EUR 115 million acquisition of a Mexican cast iron foundry from a multinational automotive manufacturer.
- Represented a Turkish publicly traded company in the USD 162 million acquisition of a leading multi-facility manufacturer of large-diameter line pipe in the United States.
- Represented a data cloud company in the USD 800 million acquisition of an open-source app framework company.
- Represented a venture capital firm as lead investor in the aggregate USD 60 million investment in an agricultural biotechnology company.
- Represented a global service-based systems integrator in the acquisition of an electronic security systems integration business across seven Asian countries.
- Represented a global bioscience company in the USD 15 million acquisition of a dietary supplements manufacturer.
- Represented a healthcare revenue cycle management company in the acquisition of a Philippines billing and collection company.

Capital Markets and Finance

- Represented a publicly traded retailer in its USD 17 billion credit facility and the issuance of over USD 4.5 billion in notes over several registered debt offerings.
- Represented a publicly traded hotel manager in multiple equity offerings, including a USD 150 million at-the-market common stock offering, a USD 101 million common stock issuance, and the spinoff of another publicly traded management company.
- Advised a publicly traded REIT in its USD 180 million at-the-market common stock offering and USD 75 million at-the-market preferred stock offering.
- Represented a multinational food company in its public offering of USD 500 million of senior notes.
- Advised a publicly traded bank in the offering of USD 65 million of subordinated notes and USD 208 million of common stock.