

Representative Legal Matters

Christopher M. Hughes

- Advising on the reform and privatisation of the NSW Energy Industry.
- Advising major utility and financial clients on the acquisition and disposal of various Australian and European wind farm assets.
- Advising a leading automotive company on the disposal of a manufacturing subsidiary.
- Advising on a range of corporate, securities, foreign investment, compliance, trade and finance matters.
- Acting for a leading Australian property group on the acquisition of its UK and European property fund and development businesses.
- Acting for a global private equity house on the first public to private transaction of a FTSE 100 entity.
- Acting for an international energy consortium on the acquisition and financing of an international power generation portfolio.
- Acting for a European infrastructure company on the acquisition of an international airport portfolio.
- Acting for a European bank on a twin track process for the sale of its UK financial services and funds management business.
- Advising on the nationalisation of a major UK financial institution.
- Advising on State and Commonwealth Government infrastructure and resources privatisations.