

Emerging Lawyers Mentoring Program

We are partnering with AbbVie, a leading multinational biopharmaceutical corporation, and Trench Rossi Watanabe in Brazil through our strategic cooperation agreement, on an important mentoring initiative that aims to support the career development of young lawyers from underrepresented communities in Asia Pacific, Middle East and Africa, Europe and Latin America.

Through the AbbVie & Baker McKenzie Emerging Lawyers Mentoring Program, AbbVie and Baker McKenzie legal mentors will provide a select number of mentees an opportunity for meaningful conversations, opportunity to learn more about pursuing private practice and in-house careers and enhancing their specialist knowledge.

Who can apply

- The program is open to young lawyers of up to 3 years PQE and senior law students from Asia Pacific, Middle East & Africa, Europe and Latin America.
- Open to in-house and private practice lawyers

Program Overview

- The program involves a series of 3 one-on-one mentoring discussions, 1 group mentoring circle, 1 Soft Skills group training webinar conducted by Baker McKenzie's Leadership & Learning team and a Career Roundtable session to be hosted by AbbVie.
- The program will commence with a Welcome Session to introduce participants and to explain the program's goals.

Timeline
