

Baker McKenzie Class of Excellence

A mentoring program that gives young talent a unique insight into the world of top-class international mandates.

What you can expect:

Personal career coaching with your mentor

Immersion into the world of Baker McKenzie with your personal buddy

Specially selected training courses to round off your university education

Practical experience through a guaranteed internship

Networking events and much more

Our Baker McKenzie Class of Excellence is aimed at students of law or business law

- Are you already participating in an excellence program at your university?
- Are you committed and one of the best students in your year?
- Are you involved as a study assistant or have you already gained experience through semesters abroad?
- Are you culturally open-minded and want to work in an international environment?

We look forward to getting to know you personally. If you can answer "yes" to one or more of the above points, then apply now.

The application deadline is March 31, 2026
