

Our Firm

Baker McKenzie has been global since its inception. We offer clients both the uncompromising commitment to excellence expected of a top firm and a distinctive way of thinking, working and behaving — as a passionately global and genuinely collaborative firm.

We seamlessly combine an instinctively global perspective with the nuanced local insights of more than 4,100 locally qualified lawyers in 77 offices in 46 countries. This includes the knowledge and experience of more leading lawyers in more countries in the Chambers Global Directory than any other global Top 20 law firm.

Being global is not only about size or geography. It requires thinking, working and behaving in a distinctively global manner. Over six decades, we have organized, governed and managed our Firm to cultivate the global mindset, awareness of distinct business cultures, collaborative nature and practical knowledge required to navigate complexity across issues, practices and borders with ease.

We understand the challenges of the global economy because we have had a global presence from the start. Since we were founded in 1949, we have been advising leading multinational and domestic companies on the issues of an integrated global market. Nearly two thirds of our fees come from clients we serve in five countries or more.

We are also leaders in talent management, with a focus on developing both top-tier technical legal skills and sophisticated interpersonal skills, allowing us to deliver consistent world-class service tailored to the preferences of our clients.
