

The Baker McKenzie Client Summer Scholars Program is a collaborative client and law firm experience for incoming Summer Associates in our US and Canada offices. Client Summer Scholars will spend a designated time during their summer experience working with our clients' in-house legal teams across a variety of legal practice areas.

My time at Multinational Technology Company was an incredible compliment to my summer at the firm. Being able to get a better understanding of how a client legal team operates will undoubtedly help me as I begin my career at Baker McKenzie. It was also an opportunity to interact with lawyers who are at all stages of their legal careers. I now have a network of mentors who have worked in every legal field imaginable.

Working on an M&A pre-diligence playbook for Multinational Transportation Company's Corporate Integrity & Compliance team was the highlight of my summer at Baker McKenzie. My team made sure to tailor the work to my specific interests and I got to work substantively with specialists in antitrust, anti-corruption, trade sanctions, and data privacy to create a playbook that will be useful to the whole team.

I had the opportunity to work on an innovative project pertaining to Multinational Transportation Company's human rights framework. This is an excellent opportunity to work with a client to navigate complex legal issues, better understand the inner workings of the client's business, and gain client-facing experience.

The experience with Multinational Transportation Company was fantastic. It was fun, engaging, and educational. I got to network with people from another country, learn the inner workings of a publicly traded company, and see a new city. It is an experience that I will never forget, and I am really grateful that Baker McKenzie has these opportunities, as many firms do not.

My time at Multinational Technology Company was an incredible experience. I was exposed to a variety of disciplines including intellectual property, supply chain contracts, antitrust, M&A, compliance, and more. The most enlightening part of the experience was receiving the unique opportunity to better understand how clients think and what they value in attorney work product.

My time at Multinational Technology Company was an amazing and rewarding experience. I was able to participate in business calls, contract drafting, and contract research. I also had the unique opportunity to collaborate in a special project in the health space which allowed me to work with the engineering team. This internship is a fantastic way to learn how in-house attorneys evaluate legal decisions and determine risks in order to improve and ensure business goals.
