

Representative Legal Matters

Stephen Crosswell

- Advised Platinum Equity, LLC on the China merger control clearance aspects of its USD 4 billion acquisition of Emerson's Network Power Business, and its SGD 150 million acquisition of the Foam Plastics Solutions and the Flow Control Devices businesses from Broadway Industrial Group Limited.
- Advised HonHai (Foxconn) on the China merger control aspects of its USD 3.8 billion acquisition of Sharp.
- Advised Murata on the China merger control aspects of its acquisition of Sony's battery division.
- Advised PT. Gapura Liqua Mandiri, Multico Infracore Holdings Pte Ltd, Toray Industries, Inc and Toray Industries, Inc (TTC) on obtaining Chinese merger control clearance in respect of an offshore joint venture.
- Advised on Hong Kong aspects of a global cartel investigation.
- Worked with Singapore counsel and appearing before the Singapore regulator (CCS) on a global cartel matter.
- Worked with Singapore counsel and appearing before the Singapore regulator (CCS) on a local Singapore cartel matter arising out of an EU investigation and decision.
- Worked with Korean counsel and appearing before the KFTC on a global cartel matter.
- Worked with Malaysian counsel and appearing before the MyCC on a global cartel matter.
- Advised various multinationals on possible leniency applications in China.
- Advised FedEx on the Chinese merger clearance aspects of its EUR 4.4 billion acquisition of TNT.
- Advised on Chinese merger clearance of a joint venture between a Swiss automotive and machine tooling company and a listed global manufacturer of motor vehicle powering products.
- Provided competition audits and compliance advice for a number of leading Hong Kong and multinational companies in the insurance, manufacturing and construction industries in anticipation of Hong Kong's competition law coming into force.
- Undertaking an extensive competition audit spanning a number of years and providing compliance advice for a major listed commercial retail property owner in Hong Kong.

Baker McKenzie.

- Advised a global port terminal facility operator on competition law compliance in its joint venture operations.
- Acted for one of Hong Kong's leading telecommunications operators in the successful defence of an investigation into alleged abuse of dominance in Hong Kong.
- Advised on drafting and negotiations with government regarding the electricity industry regulatory framework for a major Asia-based electricity company.
- Advised a consortium of financial institutions on a joint project in Asia.
- Advised a global logistics company on a cartel investigation in an Asian jurisdiction.
- Advised one of Hong Kong's leading telecommunications operators on a complaint of cartel conduct in the mobile telecommunications industry in Hong Kong.
- Advised a global institution on cross-border cartel issues.
- Represented the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce in the Legislative Council hearings relating to enactment of Hong Kong's competition law.