

Endorsements for Lothar Determann's Field Guide to Artificial Intelligence Law: International Corporate Compliance

"As always, what a masterpiece, this book on artificial intelligence law, typical of Dr. Lothar Determann. This book has extensively consolidated legal requirements and best practices through extensive coverage of topics, such as data protection, ownership of AI, drafting documentation, assessing impacts and mitigating risks and essential checklists.

Dr. Lothar's knowledge, experience, and expertise in the field of artificial intelligence is extensively displayed across the chapters and this book will be most useful and a must read for lawyers and corporate professionals across jurisdictions."

– Anand Mehta, Partner, Khaitan and Co., India

"With this terrific and incredibly timely Guide, Prof. Determann confirms his unique talent to be able to foresee and anticipate the main legal challenges which digitization raises for lawyers, companies, agencies at local and federal level but also for legal scholars and students. It is, by far, the best and most complete travelling compass, clear, structured and advanced, for anybody who needs an AI law road star. Unmissable."

– Oreste Pollicino, Professor of Constitutional Law and Media Law, Bocconi University, Italy

"Determann's Field Guide is an essential read for anyone grappling with policies, processes and procedures for the use of generative AI. Determann skilfully navigates the reader through a constantly shifting technology and legal landscape. This is a 'must read' for anyone seeking to understand what's at stake in developing a practical framework for using AI in an organizational context."

– Ardi Kolah, Founding Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Data Protection and Privacy, UK

"Artificial intelligence has taken the digital and legal worlds by storm. Drawing on his extensive experience navigating the digital revolution, Lothar Determann has thoughtfully framed the latest and possibly most dramatic phase. His AI Guide provides legal professionals and their clients with systematic checklists for traversing this new frontier."
