

Representative Legal Matters

Matthew Bennett

- Advised Puig on its acquisition of a majority stake in Charlotte Tilbury, the iconic British luxury makeup and skincare brand.
- Advised Unilever on its acquisition of GlaxoSmithKline's Health Food Drinks portfolio in India, Bangladesh and 20 other predominantly Asian markets.
- Advised Unilever on its acquisition of the home and personal care business of Quala in Latin America.
- Advised Unilever on the disposal of its Bertolli branded pasta sauces, pesto and mayonnaise business in Continental Europe to Enrico-Glasbest, a Dutch manufacturer and supplier of premium and speciality food products.
- Advised Unilever on the divestment of its direct application laundry business in Central America to Industria La Popular, a Guatemalan-based home and personal care company.
- Advised Embracer Group on its USD 137.2 million acquisition of Flying Wild Hog, a developer of PC and console games, through its subsidiary Koch Media, and its USD 765 million of Easybrain Limited, a leading mobile games developer with a core focus on advertising-based puzzle and logic games.
- Advised Siemens on its acquisition of Process Systems Enterprise Limited, a technology-leading global supplier of software and services for advanced process modelling.
- Advised McDonald's on multiple transactions in the UK.

- Advised Novo Nordisk in connection with its acquisition of a UK based biotechnology firm, Ziylo Ltd, with a potential value of USD 800 million.
- Advised a pharmaceutical industry client on the design and implementation of new board and governance structures across its EMEA group companies.
- Advised private company clients on changes to the UK Corporate Governance laws, including the delivery of training to directors and developing group-wide corporate governance frameworks.