

Representative Legal Matters

Sergei Voitishkin

- Advised one of the world's largest seed producers in the acquisition of a Russian business and its integration.
- Advised Hitachi on its USD 11 billion acquisition of Swiss engineering group ABB; the largest acquisition by Hitachi to date and the largest ever acquisition by a Japanese industrial company.
- Acted as corporate counsel to an American diversified multinational mass media and entertainment conglomerate, on the restructuring of its mass media in Russia.
- Advised Walgreens Boots Alliance, the first global pharmacy-led, health and wellbeing enterprise, in connection with the sale of its Russian pharmaceutical wholesale business.
- Advised Yamal Development LLC, a 50/50 joint venture between Novatek and Gazprom Neft, on a USD 2.94 billion acquisition of a 60% equity stake in Artic Russia from Eni.
- Advised Carlsberg on consolidating 100% of the shares in Baltika Breweries, the largest brewery in Russia and Eastern Europe, including a public offer to buy a 15.45% stake for approx. USD 1.2 billion from minority shareholders and subsequent squeeze-out of the remaining shareholders.
- Advised Siemens on a EUR 2 billion contract for the delivery of Desiro RUS type regional trains to Russian Railways.
- Advised the shareholders of Novatek, Russia's largest independent gas producer, on the sale of a 12% stake to Total as part of a strategic partnership.

- Advised KBC Group on its acquisition of Absolut Bank in a deal valued USD 1 billion.
- Advised British American Tobacco on structuring the buy-out of minority shareholders, squeeze-out and successful defense against corporate blackmail by a major Russian group.
- Advised ArcelorMittal on participation in an auction to acquire Elgaugol and Yakutugol shares (starting price USD 1.8 billion).