

Representative Legal Matters

Dranyl Jared Amoroso

Commercial Arbitration and Civil Litigation

- Led a team of lawyers in the successful defense of a multinational company in an injunction suit by another multinational company, arising out of a global multijurisdictional and multi-billion-dollar patent dispute, seeking to enjoin its operations in the Philippines.
- Led a team of lawyers that obtained a successful outcome for a healthcare company in a dispute concerning the cancellation of its supply agreement and collectibles of around USD 2 million.
- Led the successful defense for one of the world's biggest dredging companies, in an injunction suit to enjoin the company's dredging operations for a reclamation project, valued at around USD 1.1 billion.
- Led a team of lawyers that successfully obtained the dismissal of a Construction Industry Arbitration Commission (CIAC) arbitration initiated by a subcontractor against a joint venture client, valued at around PHP 20 million.
- Represented a multinational freight forwarding and logistics company in several proceedings relating to the enforcement of a multi-million-dollar arbitral award in an international commercial arbitration, one of which resulted in a favorable landmark Supreme Court decision on the scope of arbitration confidentiality under Philippine law.
- Obtained a court-issued interim measure of protection for a foreign oil trading company, that eventually led to a multi-million-dollar arbitral award in an international commercial arbitration.
- Obtained an arbitral award for the Philippine arm of a multinational advertising company in a domestic arbitration against a government agency, for services rendered sought to be paid on the basis of quantum meruit.
- Acted as arbitrator in the first two arbitrations under the Philippines' Wholesale Electricity Spot Market rules.

Criminal Defense and Prosecution

- Led a team of lawyers in the successful prosecution of several individuals engaged in cybercrime and fraud activities in the Philippines in criminal cases instituted by a multinational financial services company.
- Led a team of lawyers in obtaining the release, and successfully defending officers of a multinational client in a dawn raid conducted by law enforcement agencies on allegations of illegal dredging operations.

Baker McKenzie.

- Led a team of lawyers in securing the release from detention of a driver of a popular ride-hailing platform in a highly publicized incident involving a traffic altercation with a law enforcement officer.
- Successfully defended and prevented the arrest of chief executives of a multinational financial technology company in a criminal proceeding initiated by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.
- Successfully represented a foreign business process outsourcing company in the entrapment and arrest of an individual engaged in cybercrime and extortion activities against the company.
- Successfully defended and obtained the release of indigent clients in a pro bono case involving allegations of assault and physical injuries.
- Successfully defended and obtained the release of 36 employees of a multinational financial services company, in a dawn raid conducted by the National Bureau of Investigation.
- Successfully defended chief executives of a multinational advertising company in a tax-related criminal proceeding initiated by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.
- Successfully represented excluded heirs in a multi-million-dollar estate settlement proceeding and the contempt and criminal proceedings resulting therefrom.
- Successfully defended a foreign national from criminal indictment for supposed violation of the Anti-Violence Against Women and their Children, due to alleged failure to provide support.
- Successfully prosecuted on behalf of a multinational business process outsourcing company, an individual responsible for fraud and bomb threats against the company.