

Representative Legal Matters

Dr. Christian Burholt LL.M.

- Advised a major international medical device company on the acquisition of an innovative medtech company.
- Advised a German hospital owner on the acquisition of a direct competitor.
- Advised an international pharmaceutical company on the out-licensing of a medicinal product to a major international pharmaceutical company (transaction was used as a precedent by the German Federal Cartel Office with regard to the requirements of the new value-based transaction threshold).
- Advised Flowserve Corporation on the sale of its Gestra Group business unit to UK Spirax-Sarco Engineering plc.
- Advised ALBA Group in relation to an investment of the Techcent-owning family Deng in the ALBA Group.
- Advised a major international food company on the acquisition of a direct competitor.
- Advised an international pharmaceutical company in the context of actions against statutory health insurance funds (associations) due to joint tendering procedures in Germany.
- Advised a major international pharmaceutical company on the development and implementation of a new compliance system in the area of antitrust in Germany and the EU.
- Advised a leading association in the media sector on various aspects of German and EU antitrust law.
- Advised international pharmaceutical and medical device companies on the implementation of price and rebate schemes in Germany.
- Advised a major international pharmaceutical company on the admissibility of licensing agreements under German and EU antitrust law.
- Advised pharmaceutical and medical device companies as well as hospital owners in German and EU merger cases.
- Advised international pharmaceutical companies on the admissibility of refusal to supply issues under German and EU antitrust law.
- Conducted antitrust law in-house training for the legal, market access, reimbursement and sales departments of a major international pharmaceutical company in Germany.

- Acted for a start-up company providing a last-minute hotel booking app as a third party in the German antitrust and appeal proceedings relating to HRS's "best price" clause.