

Representative Legal Matters

Claudia Benavides Galvis

- Successfully represented a major Chinese company in arbitration proceedings filed by a major Colombian company pursuant to the civil works contract entered into between the parties for the constructions of a power plant with value exceeding USD 45 million.
- Represented the subsidiary of a major British company in a dispute that provided for international arbitration seated in New York regarding breach of a multimillionaire stock purchase agreement of a Colombian company, under ICC rules. She obtained outstanding results for our client, with an estimated value of USD 60 million.
- Represented a major French company in international arbitration proceedings, under ICC rules, seated in New York, regarding the disputes that arose for alleged breach of representations and warranted within an interest purchase agreement of a Colombian company, valued at around USD 24 million.
- Successfully represented a major international consortium in international arbitration proceedings against a state owned company regarding the breach of an EPC contract for the engineering, acquisition, construction, installation and commercial operation of a power plant in Colombia., with value exceeding USD 200 million.
- Representing an infrastructure company in arbitration proceedings arisen from the breach of a contract related to the assembly and installation of conveyor belts, with an estimated value of USD 10 million.
- Successfully represented an energy company in an arbitration related to the liquidation of an energy distribution and operation contract valued at around USD 25 million.
- Represented an energy company in relation to arbitration proceedings, under ICC rules, regarding the alleged breach of obligations of a contract for the implementation and operation of an operation system in the oil sector valued at around USD 4 million.
- Representing a multilatina in regards to a dispute related to a contract stating international arbitration proceedings under CCI rules, for the non-fulfilment of obligations in relation to the construction of a water treatment plant, with an estimated value of USD 120 million.
- Representing Finosca S.A.S. (owned by Total) within a class action in which claimants are seeking the recognition and payment of damages allegedly caused by an oil spill that occurred on 20 July 2014 in the port located near Tolú, Coveñas and San Antero in the Republic of Colombia. Value around USD 1 billion.
- Represented Ferring International Center S.A. within a litigation brought by a local company seeking the declaration of a de facto commercial agency agreement. The plaintiff is claiming payment of the commercial severance pay and the equitable indemnity due under Colombian law to commercial agents upon termination of the relationship, with an estimated value of USD 50 million.

- Representing a major American engineering company in a very complex litigation regarding the damages allegedly caused to a steam turbine during the construction of a power plant in Colombia, with an estimated value of USD 12 million.