

Representative Legal Matters

Sebastian Tytgat

- Assisted a Belgian airline in a EUR 50 million commercial agency dispute and in summary proceedings regarding its activities at Brussels Airport.
- Assisted a US-based motor vehicle manufacturer in several litigations flowing from the winding down of its Belgian-dealer network.
- Assisted the international branch of a leading Belgian telecommunications company in an IT dispute.
- Assisted various national and international suppliers in distribution, franchising and agency litigation, before Belgian courts, with a particular focus on the automotive, jewellery and watches, aviation, fashion, food & beverage, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, printing and energy industries.
- Assisted several Big Oil companies (and affiliates) in commercial agency disputes, disputes regarding highway concessions and disputes regarding service-stations.
- Assisted several companies in product liability litigation relating to heavy machinery, electric vehicles, industrial printers, consumer goods, etc.
- Assisted several of the world's largest food and beverage companies in supply chain disruption disputes, notably regarding pricing discussions following the COVID-19, Ukraine, energy and cost of living crises.
- Advised a manufacturer and distributor of eyewear on contentious and non-contentious matters regarding the operation of its Belgian franchise network.
- Assisted the world's largest beer brewer in negotiations with the Belgian Competition Authority regarding its relationship with Belgian wholesalers (as in-house counsel).
- Assisted the Belgian affiliate of a Silicon-Valley search engine tech company in EUR 7.5 million summary proceedings regarding the construction of a datacentre in Belgium.
- Assisted a Silicon-Valley printer tech company, a US-based multinational denim clothing company, several motor vehicle and motorcycle companies, and a Dutch cosmetics company in the enforcement of their selective distribution systems in Belgium and the EEA.
- Assisted a US-based multinational denim clothing company in a claim of more than EUR 1 million brought by an alleged broker.
- Assisted a Belgian electricity and natural gas company in post-acquisition CEPANI arbitration proceedings.