

Representative Legal Matters

Donna Williams

- Obtained a dismissal of action filed by a US plaintiff in SD Florida against a Hong Kong corporation.
- Represented a parent indicted for neglect and obtained unounding and expungement of neglect record.
- Counseled US-based multinational firms in connection with internal investigations into allegations of foreign corrupt practices.
- Defended a German corporation against a Sarbanes-Oxley Act whistleblower proceeding involving allegations of corporate fraud and criminal conduct.
- Counseled and represented a US foreign exchange firm against a Dominican Republic-based bank and its executives in a fraud and money laundering matter.
- Counseled and represented a US-based biopharmaceutical company in a fraud and commercial disparagement case.
- Defended a Chinese automaker in a dispute over a proposed joint venture to distribute PRC-manufactured automobiles in the US, and successfully moved the matter to a Detroit federal court to compel arbitration.
- Represented a private university in federal attachment proceedings arising from judgment entered against terrorist group concerning rare Iranian antiquities.
- Represented multinational corporations in transnational disputes and international arbitration involving long-term supply contracts, jet engine design and development, uranium mining, and the construction of alternative fuels facilities.
- Conducted class-action defense work, including multiple national class actions involving allegations of fraud, unfair trade practices, RICO, breach of fiduciary duty, and various other state and federal statutory causes of action.
- Represented major insurance companies in bad faith and insurance coverage litigation, environmental coverage litigation, and fidelity and surety litigation in state and federal courts.
- Represented a client on brief and in oral argument in federal and state appellate courts.