

Representative Legal Matters

Matthew G. Allison

- Represented a US manufacturer and Dutch parent against multimillion dollar breach and fraud claims relating to long-term production and supply agreements in multiple AAA arbitrations.
- Represented a public UK company in ICDR prosecution of multimillion dollar breach claims relating to uranium supplier agreements.
- Represented a US investor in UNCITRAL prosecution of treaty claims against the Dominican Republic under the Central American Free Trade Agreement.
- Represented a large state-owned Chinese automobile manufacturer against billion dollar RICO, trade secret, and contract interference claims in judicial and arbitral proceedings.
- Represented a public US company in ICC arbitral prosecution of multimillion dollar breach claims relating to creation of a medical records network in Abu Dhabi.
- Represented a German manufacturer against a multimillion dollar breach and fraud claims relating to construction of ethanol plant in AAA arbitration.
- Represented a large US university in judicial defense of Iranian antiquities against FSIA attachment claims.
- Represented a US steel company in judicial prosecution of multimillion dollar RICD claims against Russian and Hong Kong vendors.
- Represented a US contractor against multimillion dollar breach claims by Iraqi subcontractor concerning construction of US defense installation in ICC arbitration.
- Represented a state-owned Chinese oil company against multimillion dollar breach claims relating to development of LNG plant in Indonesia.
- Represented a public US company against multimillion dollar post-acquisition claims concerning sale of Russian telecom companies in AAA arbitral defense.
- Represented a Chinese optical networking manufacturer in judicial prosecution of post-acquisition indemnity claims.