

Representative Legal Matters

Michael A. Duffy

- Lead trial counsel before the Supreme Court of Manhattan in large commercial dispute between large manufacturers, securing USD 26 million verdict in client's favor.
- Lead trial counsel in Delaware Chancery action, successful in blocking an injunction of a USD 8 billion dollar merger between two large multi-national corporations.
- Lead trial counsel for a large private equity firm, securing a full defense verdict in the client's first-ever trial.
- Lead counsel on a large fraudulent conveyance action seeking in excess of USD 100 million in damages against a large private equity firm.
- Lead trial counsel in a patent infringement dispute, securing judgment in the client's favor.
- Lead trial counsel in an ICC arbitration matter for a large Fortune 100 client, presenting witnesses in English and Spanish, and securing a successful award on the client's behalf.
- Served as trial counsel to a large Spanish oil company involved in 300-party environmental litigation seeking damages in excess of USD 3 billion.
- Served as lead trial counsel to a large automobile manufacturer in a nationwide litigation over the phase-out of one of its divisions; trying the first phase-out case to a successful verdict.
- Served as trial counsel to a large auditing firm in a successful arbitration defeating claims in excess of USD 100 million.
- Served as lead trial counsel in numerous arbitration proceedings tried to resolution, related to a large automobile manufacturer's termination of over 65 non-performing dealers.
- Served as trial counsel in a large international arbitration matter (ICC) tried to resolution between two multinational defense contractors.
- Served as trial counsel to a large, top-tier auditing firm in securities litigation and cross-border governmental investigations relating to an international media conglomerate's alleged securities fraud.
- Served as trial counsel to a large private equity firm in an action to recover damages for various breaches of warranties related to the purchase of a large houseware manufacturing company.