

Representative Legal Matters

Dr. Daniel Larcher

Healthcare & Life Sciences

- Advises Takeda and Corza in the course of an international transaction regarding the asset sale of manufacturing plants for medicinal products and medical devices as well as all regulatory aspects, including trade licenses and facility permits.
- Advises PerkinElmer in a Mergers & Acquisitions transaction as well with regard to post-transactional matters such as toxins authorizations and radiation device registrations.
- Advises and represents companies and governmental enterprises such as ELGA GmbH with regard to classification and launch of consumer apps and software in the medical and vaccination field.
- Advised Austrian provincial states on medical devices operation duties and manufacturing with regard to devices, medtech and software and held workshops and presentations before clients and authorities.
- Speaker and advisor relationship with Austromed – Austrian Industry Association for Medical Devices and their member companies regarding manufacturing & quality, distribution contracts, trade law and product marketing.
- Advise of Austrian governmental bodies and ministries regarding legal implementation of quality and manufacturing processes with regard to IVDs and medical devices.
- Longstanding relationship with the Austrian Franchise Association (ÖFV) and many of its member companies by advising, coordinating and implementing distribution systems.
- Advising multinational healthcare companies with regard to manufacturing and quality contracts.
- Advising an international cosmetics & beauty products group on distance selling and online sales and marketing compliance.

International Commercial & Trade

- Advising a US motorcycle manufacturer with regard to consumer and B2B contracts as well as product safety and corrective measures.
- Advising a leading German sports car group with regard to service agreements and charging infrastructure arrangements from a commercial and regulatory perspective.
- Advising a multinational German motor car group on product recalls and product safety.
- Advising remex group with regard to commercial customer contracts and works contracts.
- Advising a Korean car manufacturer in drafting its standard distribution contracts for the EU.
- Advising a leading Austrian gas station network in establishing an Austrian and German franchise system.
- Advising a leading Austrian mobile telephone company in setting-up a franchise system in Austria and several Central & Eastern European countries.
- Assisting a major Austrian furniture producer in setting-up a franchise system in Russia, Israel and Saudi-Arabia.
- Advising multinational technology groups on drafting and negotiating commercial agreements, including commercial lease agreements (movable and immovable property) and general terms and conditions.