

Representative Legal Matters

Doug MacKillop

- Advising GSK on its joint venture with Pfizer's Consumer Healthcare business to create the World's largest over the counter healthcare business.
- Advising LVMH Moët Hennessy - Louis Vuitton SE, the French luxury products group, with respect to its USD 3.1 billion acquisition of Belmond Ltd. (NYSE: BEL), a leading luxury hotel and travel company.
- Advising an oil supermajor on its proposed venture capital investment in an aviation services platform.
- Advising GSK on the divestment of an antibiotics business in China.
- Advising a NASDAQ 100 semiconductor manufacturer on its USD 10.7 billion acquisition of a cybersecurity company.
- Advising Medgulf on the sale of Omnilife Insurance to RGA.
- Advising Emerson Electric on the divestment of certain manufacturing assets by its Swiss subsidiary, Von Arx AG.
- Advising Tapestry on the post-acquisition integration of the foreign operations of Kate Spade into the Tapestry foreign group structure.
- Advising private company clients on changes to the UK Corporate Governance laws, including the delivery of training to directors and developing group-wide corporate governance frameworks.
- Delivering advice and training to boards of directors of private company clients on their duties, roles and responsibilities under UK law, and managing the roll out of similar training to group company boards globally.

- Providing various corporate clients with regular ad hoc advice on corporate maintenance matters including dividend declarations, voluntary dissolutions and intra-group reorganisations.