

Representative Legal Matters

Noor El-Gohary

Dispute Resolution and Compliance

- Representing a tech giant in a VAT challenge related to the application of VAT on exported services.
- Representing an electronics company in a WHT challenge related to the application of WHT on late payment charges, defense constituted the application of (3) different Double Taxation Treaties.
- Representing an international hotel in an income tax challenge related to the certification of hotel management expenses.
- Representing a Turkish glass manufacturing subsidiary in an income tax challenge related to the overestimation of revenue by the Egyptian Tax Authority.
- Representing an American food manufacturing subsidiary in two income tax challenges related to the non- certification of a tax exemption by the Egyptian Tax Authority.
- Representing a Tech Giant in a tax evasion prosecution, the charges were successfully dropped.
- Advising a Turkish textile company on capital gains tax resulting from the sale of shares in an Egyptian subsidiary.
- Representing a Russian multinational cybersecurity and anti-virus provider in a litigation claim against its former distributor in Egypt.
- Representing a Bahraini investment bank in claiming a promissory note valued at 35 million USD and related dispute resulting from a Murabha agreement.
- Representing an American global online video sharing and social media platform in an IP infringement litigation.
- Representing an American information system software company in an employment litigation.
- Representing Dutch academic publishing company subsidiary in a product liability case, the case was successfully rejected.
- Representing an American food manufacturing subsidiary in a criminal customs case, the case was successfully dropped.

Baker McKenzie.

- Representing a Finnish pharmaceutical company in a litigation filed by its ex-agent, the case was successfully dismissed.
- Representing an American biomedical/biotechnology engineering firm in a litigation filed by its ex-distributor, the case was successfully dropped.
- Representing a French biomedical company in a contractual compensation litigation filed by its ex-distributor.
- Representing a German car manufacturer in two product liability cases.
- Representing a Danish brewery company in a litigation filed by its ex-distributor. Representing an Indian petrochemicals company in a shareholder dispute.
- Representing a British chemicals trading company in enforcing an arbitral award in Egypt.
- Representing a Polish steel company on a compensation claim related to an administrative contract.
- Advising a Brazilian meat manufacturer on its international sale agreements with Egyptian buyers.
- Advising an American hospitality industry company on the termination of an Egyptian franchise.
- Advising British auction house on its sponsorship of art sale events in Egypt.
- Advising a Swiss bank on the use of cloud storage for banking data.
- Advising a Swiss bank on the application of the personal data protection law in relation to hacks.
- Advising an American cloud data management and data security company on the operation of cloud services and data centers.
- Advising a Chinese contracting company in its projects in Egypt.
- Advising an American multinational fast-food restaurant on the use of e-signatures.

Employment

- Advised British publishing company in connection with the arrest of an existing employee.
- Advised a global construction company in the stage of market entry in Egypt with the full-fledged aspects of employment: hiring, social insurance, labor regulations.

Baker McKenzie.

- Drafted several employment contracts.
- Advised British publishing company in connection with the arrest of an existing employee.
- Advised an American computer and network security company on launching anti-discrimination and anti-sexual harassment training.