

Representative Legal Matters

Brendan Cook

- Obtained USD 6 million LCIA award on behalf of an international oil field service company due to breach of drilling contracts in relation to an oil and gas project in Senegal.
- Represented a drilling contractor in an ICC hearing in Stockholm, Sweden and secured a USD 45 million award stemming from a dispute regarding the use of drilling rigs in Turkmenistan.
- Represented a global supplier of rotating equipment solutions and obtained a USD 15 million ICC award arising from post M&A indemnity claims.
- Obtained a multimillion dollar ICC award pursuant to a final hearing in Paris, France, on behalf of an international drilling contractor in a matter arising from the breach of a master service contract covering a coalbed methane drilling project in Turkey.
- Represented a nationally-recognized consulting firm and obtained a defense verdict in USD 15 million partnership dispute tried in Texas state court.
- Secured a multimillion dollar settlement in favor of an international oil field service company in connection with an ICC proceeding about a breach of drilling contract relating to oilfield operations in the Ukraine.
- Obtained a directed verdict for a major utility in connection with product liability claims stemming from an oil field explosion.
- Resolved putative class action claims alleging USD 75 million in liability against a multinational telecommunications company for a nominal settlement amount.
- Served as co-counsel in an intellectual property dispute involving trade secrets purloined by ex-employees that resulted in a jury verdict and judgment of USD 17.5 million.
- Secured a jury verdict and take-nothing judgment in a multimillion dollar premises liability dispute brought against a nationally recognized homebuilder.
- Obtained a USD 16 million settlement on behalf of the Chapter 7 trustee for a defunct refinery in connection with fraud claims brought against a petroleum company.
- Secured a take-nothing judgment for a local investment group in response to multimillion dollar claims raised under the Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act.
- Obtained a USD 1.7 million arbitration award against a major software supplier for a breach of license agreement.

Baker McKenzie.

- Obtained an ad hoc arbitration award rejecting multimillion dollar environmental claims brought by various neighborhood residents against a local real estate developer and national homebuilder.
- Mediated a settlement stemming from breach of contract and fraud claims relating to merger agreement that resulted in USD 12 million in cost savings and other benefits realized by NYSE oil and gas producer.
- Obtained a successful defense verdict in connection with a seven-figure construction claim brought against oilfield service contractor in Texas state court.