

Representative Legal Matters

Dr. Jakub Lorys

Before joining the Firm, he:

- Advised Advent International on the sale of Thalia to a consortium led by Herder Verlag and the sale of Douglas to CVC Capital Partners.
- Advised Bain Capital on the sale of a minority stake in Wittur to PSP Investments.
- Advised BASF on the sale of the pigment business to DIC / Sun Chemical.
- Advised Siemens on the sale of Flender to Carlyle, the sale of Huba Control to Wise Road and the sale of the audiology business to a consortium consisting of EQT and the Strüngmann family.
- Advised ESG, a portfolio company of Armira, on the sale of the mobility business to Cognizant.
- Advised Hapag-Lloyd on the acquisition of NileDutch from its founders and NPM Capital.
- Advised the Hymer family on the sale of the Erwin Hymer group to Thor Industries.
- Advised Otto on the sale of SportScheck to Galeria Karstadt Kaufhof.
- Advised Österreichische Post on the sale of trans-o-flex to a consortium consisting of Amberger group and Schoeller group.
- Advised Scout24 on its initial public offering.
- Advised Tele Columbus on its initial public offering, the acquisition of pepcom from Star Capital and the acquisition of Primacom from Perseus.
- Advised TA Associates on the sale of thinkproject to EQT.
- Advised Capvis on the acquisition of Hennecke from ADCURAM.
- Advised Waterland on its participation in Hanse Orga (now Serrala).