

Representative Legal Matters

Tracy Robbins

- Acting for the seller in a multibillion-dollar transaction spanning 45 jurisdictions and handling employment-related matters such as business transfers, stock sales, reverse carve outs and employee transfers in eight jurisdictions.
- Acting for the buyer in a multibillion-dollar transaction spanning 43 jurisdictions and handling employment-related matters such as including reverse carve outs, carve outs and stock sales in relation to 7 jurisdictions.
- Advised a client on large-scale retrenchment proceedings.
- Advised an international client on a section 197 transaction.
- Compiled a due diligence report in relation to a share sale transaction.
- Advised a client on review proceedings and drafted accompanying papers.
- Attended to an application to rescind a default arbitration award and drafted heads of argument for same.
- Successfully attended to an unfair dismissal arbitration where an independent contractor claimed he was an employee, and drafted heads of argument for same.
- Successfully opposed an urgent application for reinstatement.
- Attended to an application to review a rescission ruling.
- Drafted opposing submissions in an application for leave to appeal.
- Provided legal opinions to various clients on benefits, the prospects of success in litigating to claim outstanding money, Sunday time in terms of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, and direct appeals from the Labour Court to the Constitutional Court, among others.