

Representative Legal Matters

Kayleigh Golish

At Baker McKenzie, Kayleigh has advised on the following matters:

- Represented individuals and corporations in criminal antitrust investigations by Department of Justice in entertainment and financial sectors.
- Represented Methanex Corporation in acquisition of OCI Global Methanol business.
- Represented ALDI in acquisition of Southeastern Grocers.
- Represented Unilever in acquisition of Dr. Squatch.
- Represented multinational corporations such as Google and Accenture as third parties in merger challenges before FTC administrative law proceedings and federal court.
- Counseled clients on antitrust considerations related to IP settlements and various compliance related matters in energy, agriculture, technology, transportation, consumer goods, employment, and professional services sectors.
- Counseled voters as part of Election Protection pro bono service.

Prior to joining the Firm, Kayleigh advised on the following matters:

- Represented global chemicals manufacturer Chemtrade in multidistrict class action litigation regarding alleged price fixing in the market for liquid aluminum sulfate, a key water treatment chemical, as well as various state investigations and state false claims act claims.
- Represented Grubhub in class action involving Section 1 claims filed against various food delivery service providers relating to no-price competition clauses in contracts between the platforms and restaurants listed on them.
- Represented clients Bridgestone and Marelli (f/k/a Calsonic Kansei) in various cases consolidated within In re Automotive Parts multidistrict civil class action lawsuit filed on behalf of three classes of purchasers against the manufacturers of various automotive parts seeking monetary damages for alleged violations of various state and federal antitrust and consumer protection laws involving bid-rigging allegations, including a fast-tracked case on an expedited schedule.

- Advised DOJ amnesty applicant through state cartel investigations and follow-on civil litigation.
- Defeated antitrust class claims against H&R Block that alleged a "no poach" conspiracy with franchisees to lower wages and reduce worker mobility by successfully opposing multidistrict litigation consolidation and dismissing or compelling arbitration of plaintiffs' claims on an individual basis.
- Represented Nuance Communications in antitrust counterclaims alleging violations of the Sherman Act and Clayton Act, common law unfair competition, and tortious interference with contractual relations and advantageous business relations in response to a patent infringement lawsuit filed against Omilia Natural Language Solutions involving eight patents concerning automated speech recognition and interactive voice response systems used in large scale call centers.
- Represented Neptune in federal court and arbitration in a post-closing purchase price adjustment dispute commenced by News Corporation in connection with its sale of News America Marketing to Charlesbank Capital Partners in 2020.
- Represented Microsoft in acquisition of Activision Blizzard.
- Represented MBCC in acquisition by Sika.
- Represented Varian Medical Systems in acquisition of assets divested as part of the Boston Scientific-BTG merger.
- Represented the Brady Center to Prevent Gun Violence on a pro bono basis in federal FOIA litigation against the Federal Bureau of Investigations involving the standard operating procedures for background checks conducted as part of firearm purchases and the agency's response to Covid-19 in conducting such background checks.
- Co-authored an amicus brief in United States Supreme Court case Gloucester County School Board v. G.G. involving the right of a transgender student to use a restroom that aligned with his gender identity.