

Representative Legal Matters

Christina Khoo

- Advised on the post-acquisition integration following Takeda's acquisition of Shire Plc.
- Advised a Danish multinational pharmaceutical company with a subsidiary governance review and playbook.
- Advised on the post-acquisition integration and business transformation following Whirlpool Corporation's acquisition of Indesit Company SpA.
- Advised on the carve-out of the European, Middle East and Africa carve-out of the Whirlpool Corporation business to a joint venture between Whirlpool Corporation and Arçelik.
- Advised a private-equity owned multinational software company with the legal entity rationalisation of entities in over 30 jurisdictions following its acquisitions in the IT and software space followed by a holding company restructuring of remaining entities in the group.
- Advised Broadcom on the post-acquisition integration of VMWare into its structure.
- Advised Broadcom on the divestment of its end-user computing division.
- Advised a multinational professional services company on various post-acquisition integration and entity clean-up matters.
- Advised a leading insurance provider on various holding company restructurings and legal entity rationalisations.
- Advised Cummins on the separation of its filtration business.
- Advised Thales on the divestment of its Ground Transportation Systems business to Hitachi Rail.
- Advised a global aerospace/defence company on the restructuring of its European operations which involved a UK/Netherlands cross-border merger.
- Advised an oil and gas exploration company on its holding company restructuring.
- Advised a Japanese telecommunications company on the carve-out and listing of certain data centre assets.
- Advised on the post-acquisition integration of a leading data centre and colocation provider, Telecity Group Plc into Equinix, Inc.
- Advised on the global restructuring and IP migration for an international fashion house.
- Advised on various business reorganisations and spin-outs of a global lifestyle apparel, footwear and accessories company.

- Advised a multinational food and beverage company on its holding company restructuring.
- Advised on and coordinated local law advice for a US-based fast-food company on various IP and holding company restructurings.