

Representative Legal Matters

Gareth Roberts

- Assisting a group of trustees on general contentious and advisory issues relating to a family trust, as well as an ongoing trust restructure.
- Assisting a construction company in ICC arbitration proceedings relating to a high-end hotel complex in the CIS.
- Representing a well-known bank in defending an action relating to the alleged manipulation of certain financial products, including an investigation of potentially incriminating emails and other communications.
- Representing a high net worth individual in a bid to discharge a worldwide freezing order and resist an application to serve English proceedings out of the jurisdiction.
- Advising a media company on the dismissal of an employee and associated protective action in light of evidence suggesting the misappropriation of confidential information.
- Advising a media company on potential litigation action relating to alleged anti-competitive practices in its purchase of broadcasting rights for sports events.
- Advising a sports team on potentially anti-competitive clauses in a framework agreement governing the sport and the procedure for bringing an action to challenge such clauses.
- Providing legal and strategic advice to a company and certain linked individuals following the Paradise Papers leak in 2017 and a subsequent publication threat.
- Representing a high net worth individual in divorce proceedings and associated litigation relating to an offshore trust.
- Providing advice to a media company on potentially fraudulent activity by a former employee based in Asia, including filing interim applications in offshore jurisdictions and AsiaPac.

- Assisting a leading electronics company on a potentially serious product safety issue, including advice on regulatory regimes in various jurisdictions and assistance in notifying regulators.
- Providing pro bono guidance to a group of local residents around potential judicial review proceedings against a local council relating to environmental issues.
- Assisting on a key Jersey case which was appealed from Jersey to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.