

Representative Legal Matters

Iman Jamil

- Amended content moderation guidelines for a major video sharing platform to reflect the OSA and provided 2-day training on the same.
- Provided regular OSA compliance assistance to a major developer of augmented reality mobile games.
- Advised a major technology platform on the implications of amending safety filters for its generative AI model.
- Advised several large technology companies on illegal content reporting requirements under UK and EU law.
- Provided analysis of copyright infringement risks on the output of generative AI models for a range of large platform companies.
- Advised a large gaming platform on a copyright infringement matter.
- Drafted a critical impact risk assessment for a large consumer goods platform in light of the launching of its advertising functionality.
- Provided product counselling for a major video sharing platform.
- Advised several large platforms on statement of reasons requirements under DSA.
- Provided analysis on implications of launching a new social media app to a large technology/AI company.
- Regularly advised on quantitative and qualitative aspects of DSA transparency reports for multiple platforms.
- Analysed proposed marketing campaigns and materials of a large retail platform and amended for UK-compliance.
- Assisted a large healthcare client with litigation proceedings.
- Drafted AI policies for multiple consumer goods companies.