

Representative Legal Matters

William Jones

Commercial litigation

- Acting for a financial services company on the defence of a breach of contract claim in the Commercial Court brought by a global outsourcing partner to the pharmaceutical industry.
- Acting for a leading software company in contractual disputes arising from the impact of Russian sanctions on its distributorship arrangements.
- Acting for a biotech on a contractual dispute with a commercial partner arising from a licensing, supply, and collaboration agreement relating to the development of a biosimilar.
- Advising a multinational technology company on the resolution of a contractual dispute relating to a major transformation and outsourcing project for a UK plc.
- Advising an individual on the defence of a High Court claim for conspiracy culminating in a four-week trial in the Commercial Court in Spring 2021.
- Acting for a major record label on a joint venture dispute with a high-profile creative in the music industry.
- Advising a leading social media company on High Court litigation relating to the management of its employee share scheme.
- Acting for a leading broker of financial products in defending a dishonest assistance claim in the Financial List of the High Court.
- Acting for an international technology company in a claim against a number of defendants for breach of a contract for the supply and set up of a platform to optimise the delivery of video content to mobile devices.

Regulatory, public and media law

- Acting for a broadcaster on judicial review proceedings in the UK High Court, Court of Appeal, and Supreme Court relating to Ofcom Broadcasting Code sanctions.
- Acting for a supplier of technology solutions to the transport sector on a challenge to the procurement by a UK public body of a nine-figure contract for the supply of a traffic camera and enforcement solution.
- Advising an energy supplier on potential litigation in respect of the UK Government's roll out of the Smart Metering implementation programme.
- Advising a multinational technology company in respect of risk management strategies concerning its potential involvement in the UK Covid-19 Inquiry.

- Acting for a public body on its involvement in the Thirlwall Inquiry.
- Acting for a corporate on its involvement in the Dawn Sturgess inquiry.
- Advising a global pharmaceutical company on the public procurement and contracting aspects of the launch of a weight loss drug.
- Acting for a leading shipping company on a judicial review claim relating to a freight subsidy scheme put in place by the Department for Transport during the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Advising a leading manufacturer of high-tech surgical equipment on a challenge to the award of a nine-figure public contract by a UK contracting authority.
- Conducting judicial review proceedings on behalf of a charity relating to the implementation by NHS England of technology appraisal guidance issued by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence.
- Acting for a leading pharmaceutical company on the development of treatment guidelines by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence.
- Advising a provider of oncology services on a dispute with NHS England relating to the commissioning of a diagnostic test in the UK.
- Assisting a range of clients on managing the impact of Brexit on the conduct of public procurement procedures.