

Representative Legal Matters

Dennis A. Quintero

- Advise a Korean company that develops and manages water resources and water supply facilities in its joint venture for the construction, operation and maintenance of a water treatment facility in the Philippines awarded under the Build-Operate-Transfer Law/Public-Private Partnership Program.
- Advise a German financial services company in the completed acquisition of a controlling interest in a major Philippine commercial bank's life insurance business in the Philippines.
- Advise Galoc Production Company on commercial and regulatory matters in relation to its interests and duties as operator for the Galoc oil field project and other petroleum services contracts in the exploration stage.
- Advise an Australian gold mining company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX) with gold mining operations in the Philippines on equity structure of its investment in its Philippine affiliates, employment of foreign nationals in Philippine affiliate, establishment of Regional Operating Headquarters, compliance with Philippine laws on practice of profession, and permits required for foreign nationals to practice geology/engineering in the Philippines.
- Represent a Philippine affiliate of an ASX-listed company in (a) obtaining the required local government consent and in engagement with the national government for a gold project to proceed to production following completion of its feasibility study and (b) joint venture negotiations in respect of a number of its tenements.
- Advise one of the largest banks in Korea and the investment banking arm of another large Korean bank in respect of its investments in and the structuring of project company that will construct and operate a waste incineration plant.
- Advise a Japanese government corporation that provides financial support and expertise for overseas infrastructure businesses on transaction structuring (joint venture) in relation to its partnership with the Bases Conversion and Development Authority for the Clark Green City and the Clark Rail Transit System projects.
- Assist an Australian travel retailing services company in its acquisition of equity interests in a travel industry software company.
- Advise one of the largest commodities/mining companies in the world in the sale of its interest in a Philippine copper-gold project.
- Advise a private equity and venture capital firm in respect of the structuring of its investments in a portfolio of Philippine renewable energy projects.

- Advise a Japanese trading company in its joint venture and acquisition of additional interests in a Philippine power company that operates diesel-fired power plants.