

Representative Legal Matters

Donemark J. L. Calimon

- Represent an online technology platform in several completed and ongoing proceedings, including court litigation, public hearings before national legislative bodies and proceedings before the Land Transportation Franchising and Regulatory Board.
- Represent a US-based multi-level marketing company in proceedings before the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Department of Trade and Industry.
- Advise and represent two major international chemical companies in torts suits filed by banana plantation owners, which together possibly constitute the biggest damages/tort suits ever filed in the Philippines.
- Represent the Philippine branch of a Netherlands-based electronics company against claims made by a government-run medical institution in relation to an equipment supply contract.
- Represent a US-based solar energy company in an arbitration relating to breaches of joint venture and supply agreements.
- Advise a joint venture between two Japanese engineering and construction companies in connection with construction arbitration before the CIAC in relation to its claims against a Philippine government agency arising from an agreement to construct a local airport facility.
- Appointed as an arbitrator in an arbitration administered by the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC between a US-based private financial planning company and a Philippine-based publicly-listed property development firm involving claims under an equity line of credit agreement.
- Appointed as chairman of an arbitral tribunal in an ad hoc international arbitration, under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, between a Philippines-based trading and manufacturing company engaged in heavy metal scraps and a foreign company.
- Appointed as an arbitrator in an ad hoc international arbitration between a Philippines-based hatchery and the Philippine subsidiary of a Norway-based aquaculture company.
- Appointed as chair of the arbitral tribunal in a construction arbitration under the Arbitration Rules of the CIAC. The dispute involves claims for breach of contract for the supply of formworks against a local construction company.
- Appointed as chair of the arbitral tribunal in an ad hoc international arbitration involving a nickel sale and purchase agreement.

Baker McKenzie.

- Appointed as chair of an arbitral tribunal in a construction arbitration between a local property developer and property owners.
- Act for a UK-based oil and gas company in a commercial arbitration proceeding commenced against it by a Philippines-based oil and gas company involving disputes arising from a sale and purchase Agreement.
- Act for a NASDAQ-listed semiconductor manufacturer in defending a claim filed by a local construction company before the CIAC in connection with the construction of its semiconductor facility in the Philippines.
- Act for an engineering company in an ICA-ICC arbitration in Singapore regarding claims arising under a contract for works.
- Act for a European construction company in its disputes with the Philippine government agency in relation to its bid for a local road project.
- Defend a leading engineering construction company in a claim for ejectment and assist client prosecute an action for specific performance and damages in connection with the title and possession to real properties in one of Manila's top business districts.
- Advise a leading US supplier of industrial gases, specialty gases, and related industries with its dispute with a leading manufacturer and distributor of liquid and air cylinder products in the Philippines involving allegations on the latter's claim of Tortious Interference.
- Advise a software solutions developer regarding issues on possible blacklisting from a government procurement electronic portal and disputes arising from a joint venture with US-based technology solutions company.