

Representative Legal Matters

Javier L. Navarro-Velasco

- Representing real estate developers and credit and corporate institutions in loan agreements secured with specific guarantees.
- Representing national and international companies in commercial proceedings involving debt collection through international agreements.
- Representing State-owned companies.
- Representing national and foreign banking and finance institutions.
- Representing several national and international companies in insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings.
- Advising national and international companies on matters involving product defects.
- Representing credit institutions and brokerage firms in suits filed against them.
- Representing private capital firms in corporate agreement, financing and loan agreements and other cases involving violation of fiduciary provisions.
- Representing national and foreign parties in conventional proceedings under trust or in commercial agreements.
- Advising on agreement interpretation in several matters.
- Representing private and government companies in arbitration proceedings as mediator in domestic and international arbitrations.
- Some representative clients include Petroleos Mexicanos, Daimler Financial Services, Dal-Tile, Mid-South Industries Inc., among others.
- Appointed by the IFECOM as Conciliator in various proceedings in which the debt has exceeded the amount of USD$600 million.
- Participated as expert witness in several trials in the US.