

Representative Legal Matters

David Zaslowsky

- Represented a captive insurance company in a series of ad hoc arbitrations arising out of incidents at nuclear power plants.
- Represented a chemical company in an ICC arbitration concerning termination of a long-term relationship for the development of certain state of the art technology.
- Represented an Indian bank in a USD 530 million claim under a series of guarantees against entities of an Indian conglomerate, including supervising global efforts to enforce the judgment.
- Represented an Israeli technology company in defending a claim concerning business in China.
- Defended a French manufacturer of smart cards accused of patent infringement.
- Represented an internet company in an HKIAC arbitration in a claim against the sellers of a Chinese internet company.
- Represented an Indian company against charges of theft of trade secrets with respect to state of the art resin production.
- Represented a technology development company in a patent infringement suit concerning the infringement of a patent for the design of cable television systems.
- In a case in which the claimant rejected our client's offer to make a payment to settle, defended this ICDR arbitration, defeated the claim in its entirety and prevailed on a counterclaim.
- Represented a well-known fashion brand in a trademark dispute with a former licensee.
- Represented a foreign company in a AAA arbitration in a dispute under an agreement that called for the development and subsequent sale of Surface Mount Technology machines.