

Representative Legal Matters

Glenn G. Fox

- Represented non-US entrepreneurs establishing US business ties with their treaty based US income tax planning
- Represented European based founders of software and healthcare companies on US pre-immigration tax and philanthropic planning
- Represented US publicly traded company with the establishment of a non-charitable purpose trust structure
- Represented New Jersey based family owning interests in closely held Asia based multinational company on international tax and estate planning
- Represented multiple generations of Midwest based family owning multinational manufacturing company on estate and philanthropic planning
- Assisted various charitable foundations with international ties for the purpose of establishing public charity branches in the United States
- Represented a royal family from Europe with respect to the restructuring of various US trusts that date back to the 1920s in order to avoid foreign gift taxes
- Advised the heirs of a pharmaceutical manufacturing company in a significant family trust matter
- Represented a family with significant New York real estate holdings on estate and succession planning
- Represented Florida based family with significant business and real estate holdings in the US and Latin America with trust, succession and charitable planning
- Advised founder of highly successful New Jersey based telecommunications company on succession and estate planning
- Represented a family owning a very successful New York based manufacturing business with respect to a business succession planning and sale of the company
- Guided the formation of a public environmental charity
- Represented families with significant wealth for purposes of establishing private charitable foundations
- Represented a university involved in a large estate litigation