

Representative Legal Matters

Joshua S. Wolkoff

- Representing information technology company in action for copyright infringement and DMCA violations against competitor arising from allegations of unauthorized use of copyrighted maps.
- Advising online platforms and social media networks on DMCA notice and takedown compliance, policies and procedures and related intermediary liability issues.
- Secured early dismissal of copyright infringement claim filed against online intermediary and service provider of web design, content hosting and CRM technologies in the Central District of California arising from allegedly infringing user generated content on platform's servers.
- Secured permanent injunction on behalf of global food and beverage company in copyright and trademark infringement action against a declaratory judgment plaintiff who initially sued for non-infringement and abandonment.
- Obtained first impression ruling concerning a defendant's standing to invalidate a copyright in the absence of an affirmative claim for infringement by the plaintiff.
- Won summary judgment dismissing four trademark infringement claims and prevailing on affirmative breach of contract claim in technology transfer dispute.
- Successfully defended claims of copyright infringement brought by photographer against luxury fashion house, as a result of advertising campaign.

Prior to joining the Firm, Josh handled the following matters:

- Defeated preliminary injunction and obtained summary judgment barring claims for defamation against internet service provider and online message board under Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act.
- Obtained preliminary injunction, summary judgment and subsequent fee award on behalf of film producer against motion picture contributor in declaratory judgment action for non-infringement of copyright and sole authorship. Served as second chair in appeal, later affirmed by the Second Circuit, in important decision involving copyright co-ownership and the rights of collaborators.
- Successfully defended one of the world's largest independent press agencies and wire services against claims of direct and contributory copyright infringement, as well as violations under the DMCA.

Baker McKenzie.

- Defended professional sports league and member team in trademark dispute concerning team name.
- Defended preliminary injunction and ensuing litigation brought by competitor of leading 3D medical software developer, based on allegations of copyright infringement to enjoin sale of award-winning 3D medical app; settled favorably.
- Defeated copyright infringement and right of publicity claims brought by model against major stock photography agency on motion to dismiss.
- Member of litigation team defending book writer in copyright infringement lawsuit involving hit Broadway musical.