

Representative Legal Matters

Kristina Fridman

- Representing the beneficiaries of a decedent's trust in a contested high-value probate action and related declaratory action.
- Representing an insurance technology provider regarding two Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) class actions.
- Representing a foreign real-estate company in an arbitration and related state court action with a former business partner regarding their business divorce.
- Representing a State government in an ICSID investor-state arbitration regarding two failed infrastructure projects.
- Representing pro bono an affirmative asylum seeker from Mali who has faced gender-based violence.
- Advised two multinational energy companies regarding their options in New York courts.
- Advised a foreign hedge fund regarding its options in New York courts.
- Represented a Netherlands tobacco company in a JAMS mediation regarding a failed joint venture.
- Represented a high-net worth individual in mediation regarding a business divorce with a former partner.
- Represented an international biotech company in obtaining an emergency injunction in federal court and later negotiating a settlement agreement.
- Assisted in representing an investor in an UNCITRAL investor-state arbitration against Belarus.
- Represented the owners of a foreign pharmaceutical company and their US entities in a JAMS arbitration brought by the former CEO and minority shareholder.
- Represented a multinational pharmaceutical company in an ICC arbitration related to a post-acquisition earn-out dispute.
- Represented an energy insurance mutual in a coverage dispute with one of its members.
- Assisted in representing a multi-national distribution company attempting to quash a Section 1782 discovery request in aid of two arbitrations related to the termination of contract for services in the Middle East.
- Represented a national non-profit organization in a court-sanctioned mediation with one of its former affiliates.