

Representative Legal Matters

Olga Gavrylyuk

- Advised one of the largest global medical technology companies on the reorganization and carve-out of the client's diabetes care business.
- Advised Olam International Ltd. on the reorganization and carve-out of the client's business into two distinct operating groups, focusing on food ingredients and global agri-business.
- Advised Milk Alliance, a leading dairy producer in Ukraine, on restructuring of its group by domestic merger of Dutch companies and cross-border merger of Dutch and Cypriot companies of the group.
- Advised Nielsen, the media research firm, on splitting into two independent publicly traded companies by spinning off its Global Connect business.
- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on integration issues due to the acquisition of another global biopharmaceutical company (excluding its oncological business).
- Advised CBH Compagnie Bancaire Helvétique SA on the acquisition by Swiss CBH bank of LLC "MOSST," a Ukrainian company that develops payment services.
- Advised Milkiland N.V. on the redomiciliation of an international diversified dairy producer from the Netherlands to Cyprus.
- Advised a British multinational consumer goods company on the Ukrainian law issues in connection with the separation of its global business.
- Advised an American private equity investment firm on the Ukrainian law aspects of the global acquisition of a diagnostic systems manufacturer from an American multinational corporation.
- Advised the world's leading home appliances producer on the Ukrainian law aspects of its integration with one of the leading European manufacturers and distributors of major domestic appliances, following completion of its global acquisition in 2014.
- Advised Nasdaq, one of the most famous and the second-largest exchange in the world by market capitalization, on the acquisition of a Ukrainian technology product company incorporated in Ukraine and in the UK.
- Advised MHP SE, one of the biggest poultry producers and exporter in Ukraine, on redomiciliation of a Luxembourg publicly traded holding company of the group to Cyprus.

- Advised Ovostar Union, one of the biggest egg producers and exporters in Ukraine, on redomiciliation of the publicly traded holding company of the group from the Netherlands to Cyprus.
- Advised leading pharma companies in Ukraine on redomiciliation of the holding company of the group from Luxembourg to Cyprus and further merger of two Cypriot companies of the group.