

Representative Legal Matters

Colin H. Murray

- Obtained a favorable verdict for the defense in a fraud, misrepresentation concealment and contract case on behalf of market leading software enterprise services companies following a six-week jury trial.
- Obtained a defense verdict and an award of over USD 2.2 million for a non-profit entity in breach of contract and fraudulent conveyance arbitration.
- Successfully defended a medical device manufacturer (cancer treatment) in a one-month ICC arbitration held in Hong Kong.
- Defended one of the world's largest manufacturers of transportation vehicles and equipment in week-long ICDR arbitration and related civil litigation.
- Defended an international airline in a nationwide class action against 2.2 million consumers on alleged identity theft and violation of privacy laws.
- Defended an international luxury cinema chain in a nationwide class action against 250,000 consumers on alleged identity theft and violation of privacy laws.
- Obtained a plaintiff verdict and an award of USD 30 million, including USD 20 million in punitive damages, in a fraud and breach of fiduciary duty case following a bench trial.
- Obtained a plaintiff verdict and an award of USD 7.2 million in a misrepresentation, concealment and civil conspiracy case following a three-week jury trial.
- Obtained a defense verdict in a breach of contract/fraud case filed by a former executive against a medical implant company after a two-week jury trial.
- Obtained a defense verdict in a breach of contract / fraud case filed by a distributor against a media company after a four-week jury trial.
- Obtained a defense verdict and an award of USD 1.4 million in attorneys' fees for corporate telecommunications entities and their principals after a month-long arbitration arising out of failed stock purchases.
- Obtained an extension of non-interference covenants against the founder of a dental implant manufacturing company on behalf of the purchaser after a two-week arbitration.
- Defended plaintiffs in a statewide class action against an international luxury clothing retailer on alleged violations of California's Song-Beverly Act relating to consumer privacy.
- Obtained a USD 2.4 million verdict in a breach of contract case arising out of an indemnity dispute after a week-long arbitration proceeding.

- Obtained a defense verdict after a three-week jury trial arising out of a dispute between a Taiwanese media company and its distributor.
- Secured a favorable settlement in a commercial fraud case after a week-long jury trial.
- Secured summary judgment for a children's hospital in a federal civil rights case where the plaintiff demanded USD 100 million.
- Defended the San Diego Chargers in litigation against a city in California over a stadium use agreement.
- Defended a Chinese state-owned entity in a negligent marketing and distribution of product case.
- Defended investment advisers in an anti-solicitation covenant case.
- Defended a city in California in a class action alleging improper utility tax for mobile telephone communications.
- Obtained consecutive hung juries in a complex criminal case.