

Representative Legal Matters

Sphehile Nxumalo

Merger Control / Mergers & Acquisitions

- Advised and represented a leading multinational healthcare company in its acquisition of a multinational consumer healthcare business.
- Advised and represented a multinational construction and mining company in its disposal of various non-core businesses pursuant to a strategic business review exercise.
- Advised and represented a leading multinational pharmaceutical and life sciences company in its disposal of its animal healthcare business.
- Advised and represented a multinational coal and heavy minerals mining company in its disposal of one of its mines.
- Advised and represented a leading multinational services, trading and distribution company in its acquisition of a leading hygiene services provider in the United Kingdom and Spain.
- Advised and represented a leading multinational services, trading and distribution company in its travel cluster restructuring.
- Advised and represented a multinational conglomerate power tools and life sciences equipment company in its acquisition of the power grids business of a multinational corporation.
- Advised and represented a multinational steel products manufacturer on the restructuring and corporatisation of its various businesses for subsequent disposal.

Antitrust Compliance / Antitrust Litigation / Cartel, Investigations and Dawn Raids

- Advised and represented a multinational services, trading and distribution company and a multinational healthcare company in respect of allegations of pre-implementation of a merger (gun-jumping).
- Advised and represented an international asset management and banking group in relation to allegations of cartel conduct.
- Advised and represented two international automotive corporations in respect of allegations of cartel conduct.

- Advised and represented several financial institutions on various antitrust/competition law issues.
- Advised and represented a South African medical scheme in relation to the Health Market Inquiry.
- Compiled and provided antitrust/competition law compliance training for a South African healthcare company.
- Conducted a compliance audit and a due diligence investigation on an international energy provider.
- Conducted a compliance audit and a due diligence investigation on a global container shipping company.