

Representative Legal Matters

Nicole J.S. Sudhindra

- Represented a Fortune 500 company in its successful global carveout in 21 countries to a standalone business.
- Represented a US publicly-traded multinational manufacturing company of the foreign aspects of the sale of one of its divisions valued at 2.025 billion.
- Represented a global computer security software company on the USD 4.0 billion divestiture of its enterprise business.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company on the USD 2.7 billion divestiture of its global consumer business.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in its post-acquisition integrations in 25+ jurisdictions including the rationalization of 60+ entities in the US.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in its entity rationalization in EMEA and LTA.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in its acquisition of a carved-out business in North America with the global acquisition valued at approximately 11 billion.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in its separation and sale of assets in EMEA valued at approximately USD 287.5 million.
- Represented a US publicly-traded multinational pharmaceutical company in its post-acquisition integration valued at approximately USD 1 billion.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in two of its post-acquisition integrations including the transfer of shares, assets and employees.
- Represented an Indian conglomerate in its acquisition of IP assets.
- Represented a Europe-based global medical devices company on the separation and sale of one of its major business units in 25+ jurisdictions (USD 6.1 billion).
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in a global restructuring including the formation of an Asian holding company.
- Represented a NASDAQ-listed company in the restructuring of its Canadian, French and UK sales structure.

- Represented a Fortune 500 company in restructurings prior to a re-domestication from Switzerland to Ireland.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in the restructuring of its inter-company debt in Mexico.
- Represented a private equity firm in its USD 150 million acquisition of a domestic manufacturing company.
- Represented a NYSE-listed company in its USD 320 million acquisition of a domestic energy services company.
- Represented a NYSE-listed company in a post-acquisition integration and restructuring of its foreign legal structure to improve cash management.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in a pre-acquisition restructuring of its European supply chain.
- Represented a Fortune 500 company in a restructuring of its European manufacturing licensing agreements.

