

Representative Legal Matters

Masahiro Tanabe

- Acted for the first foreign electricity retailer to obtain an electricity retail license in Japan.
- Advised a foreign energy company on one of the first onsite corporate PPA's in Japan.
- Advised multiple foreign electricity retailers and wholesalers on their electricity supply agreements in Japan.
- Advised a leading global energy trading company on the establishment of its Japanese electricity trading desk, including providing detailed advice on Japanese electricity regulations.
- Acted for a leading global data center operator on its power supply agreements in Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its joint venture with a foreign energy company relating to electricity business in Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its rooftop solar corporate PPA business in Southeast Asia.
- Acted for a global offshore wind developer on its joint venture with a Japanese energy company to develop offshore wind projects in Japan with a combined capacity of approximately 600 MW.
- Advised a global offshore wind developer on the development of a Japanese offshore wind project, including providing detailed advice on Japanese offshore wind regulations.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its overseas assets merger with another Japanese utility, including power projects in Middle East and North America.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its investment into an LNG liquefaction terminal in North America.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its long term LNG sale and purchase agreements to import LNG into Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its agreements relating to LNG optimization.