

Representative Legal Matters

Masahiro Tanabe

- Acted for the first foreign electricity retailer to obtain an electricity retail license in Japan.
- Advised a foreign energy company on one of the first onsite corporate PPAs in Japan.
- Acted for an international sponsor on the development of one of the first stand-alone battery ESS projects in Japan.
- Acted for a leading global data center operator on the development of a hyperscale data center in Japan, including negotiating a power supply agreement with a Japanese supplier.
- Advised multiple foreign electricity retailers and wholesalers on their electricity supply agreements in Japan.
- Advised multiple foreign energy companies on the establishment of their Japanese electricity trading desks, including providing detailed advice on Japanese electricity regulations.
- Advised multiple foreign and Japanese companies on their rooftop solar corporate PPA businesses within Japan and abroad.
- Acted for a global offshore wind developer on its joint venture with a Japanese energy company to develop offshore wind projects in Japan with a combined capacity of approximately 600 MW.
- Advised multiple foreign offshore wind developers on the development of offshore wind projects in Japan, including providing detailed advice on Japanese offshore wind regulations.

- Advised a major Japanese utility on one of the first Japanese-language LNG sale and purchase agreements.
- Advised multiple Japanese utilities on long-term LNG sale and purchase agreements to import LNG into Japan.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its investment in an LNG liquefaction terminal in North America.