

Representative Legal Matters

Masahiro Tanabe

- Acted for a number of foreign electricity retailers on their successful applications for electricity retail license in Japan.
- Advised multiple foreign electricity retailers and wholesalers on their electricity supply agreements in Japan.
- Advised a leading global energy trading company on the establishment of its Japanese electricity trading desk, including providing detailed advice on Japanese electricity regulations.
- Advised a foreign energy company on one of the first corporate PPA's (power purchase agreements) in Japan.
- Advised a foreign energy company on its virtual power plant (VPP) business in Japan.
- Advised a foreign energy management service provider on its partnership with a major Japanese utility.
- Acted for a global offshore wind developer on its joint venture with a Japanese energy company to develop offshore wind projects in Japan with a combined capacity of approximately 600 MW.
- Acted for a global data center operator on its power supply agreements in Japan.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its overseas power projects assets merger with another Japanese utility, including power projects in Middle East and North America.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its acquisition of a US power project with capacity of over 900 MW.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its investment into an LNG liquefaction terminal in North America.
- Advised a foreign project developer on its EPC contract for a mega solar project in Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese construction company on its license contract in relation to a construction project in Southeast Asia.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its long term LNG sale and purchase agreements to import LNG into Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its agreements relating to LNG optimization.