

Representative Legal Matters

Masahiro Tanabe

- Acted for a US electricity retailer on its successful application for an electricity retail license in Japan.
- Advised a US electricity retailer on its various commercial contracts with electricity suppliers, utilities and customers in Japan.
- Advised a foreign energy company on its entry into the Japanese electricity market.
- Advised a foreign investor on its virtual power plant (VPP) business in Japan.
- Advised a US energy management service provider on its partnership with a major Japanese utility.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its overseas power projects assets merger with another Japanese utility, including power projects in Middle East and North America.
- Acted for a major Japanese utility on its acquisition of a US power project with capacity of over 900 MW.
- Acted for various foreign project developers on their acquisition of renewable energy projects in Japan.
- Advised various foreign project developers on their development of renewable energy projects in Japan.
- Advised a foreign project developer on its EPC contract for a renewable energy project in Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese construction company on its license contract etc in relation to its construction project in Southeast Asia.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its long term LNG sale and purchase agreements to import LNG into Japan.
- Advised a major Japanese utility on its long term LNG sale and purchase agreements to resell its LNG in Japan.