

Representative Legal Matters

Faye Williams

- Advising an international energy company in connection with the sale of interests in a portfolio of onshore wind and utility-scale solar projects across the United States.
- Advising a consortium of infrastructure funds in connection with the acquisition of interests in a portfolio of utility-scale solar energy projects across the United States.
- Advising a major pharmaceutical company in connection with the procurement and negotiation of two virtual power purchase agreements in the United States.
- Advising an investment fund in connection with a bid for minority equity interests in a clean energy investment platform and its portfolios of community carport and rooftop solar assets across the United States.
- Advising a Spanish petrochemical company in connection with its bid for a minority interest in a renewable energy developer, and its pipeline of utility-scale renewable energy and storage projects under development across the United States.
- Advised Naturgy Energy Group in connection with its acquisition of Hamel Renewables and its portfolio of 3.2 GW utility scale solar and 2 GW of co-located energy storage projects.
- Advised Hannon Armstrong on the acquisition of a minority equity interest in a 1.6 GW onshore wind and utility-scale solar portfolio developed and managed by Clearway Energy Group.
- Advised DIF Capital Partners on its acquisition of BluEarth Renewables and its portfolio of renewable energy assets across North America.
- Advised a renewable energy investor in connection with its co-investment in a 2.3 GW portfolio of onshore wind and utility-scale solar assets developed by a leading independent power producer in the United States.
- Advised a renewable energy company in connection with the negotiation of the project agreements for the development of a waste heat power generation facility pilot project.
- Advised an infrastructure fund in connection with the potential acquisition of a portfolio of residential rooftop solar assets across the United Kingdom.
- Advised a North American renewable energy company on the negotiation of an engineering, procurement and construction contract to deliver a battery energy storage system at an existing solar facility in California.

- Advised a North American power company on the engineering, procurement and construction contract for a high pressure / low pressure turbine assembly replacement.
- Advised a North American power company on the engineering, procurement and construction contract for the construction of three natural gas-fired boilers for the production and supply of superheated steam.
- Advised a shortlisted consortium in connection with an auction for the purchase of an interest in a desalination plant in California.
- Advised a shortlisted consortium in connection with the New Adult Mental Health & Addictions Facility P3 project in Newfoundland.
- Advised the equity partner to a shortlisted consortium in connection with the California State University (Fresno) Central Utility Plant Replacement P3 Project.