

Representative Legal Matters

Julia Webster

At Baker McKenzie, Julia has represented the following parties:

- Represented the Canola Council of Canada in a dumping investigation into Canadian origin canola seeds initiated by China's Ministry of Commerce.
- Represented Hilti in a dumping/subsidization administrative review and expiry review before the Canada Border Services Agency and the Canadian International Trade Tribunal.
- Represented Rio Tinto Alcan in a dumping/subsidization expiry review before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal.
- Represented multiple global technology companies in trade compliance verifications focused on valuation conducted by the Canada Border Services Agency.
- Represented luxury retailers in trade compliance verifications focused on classification and origin by the Canada Border Services Agency, including appeals of final determinations.
- Represented Canadian importers in Customs Self-Assessment program audits conducted by the Canada Border Services Agency.
- Represented multinationals making voluntary disclosures to the RCMP and Global Affairs Canada regarding non-compliance with Canadian sanctions and export controls.
- Successfully represented individuals, Canadian companies and multinationals in obtaining sanctions permits issued by Global Affairs Canada.

Prior to joining Baker McKenzie, Julia handled the following matters:

- Represented Rio Tinto Alcan in a dumping/subsidization investigation hearing before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal relating to silicon metal imported from Thailand, Laos, Malaysia, Norway, Kazakhstan, Brazil and Russia (NQ-2017-001) and an expiry review relating to silicon metal from China (RR-2018-003).
- Represented a TSXV-listed company in an investigation into violations under the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act.
- Represented POSCO and the Canadian Coalition for Construction Steel in the Canadian International Trade Tribunal Safeguard Inquiry into the Importation of Certain Steel Goods (GC-2018-001).
- Represented Fluor Canada in a judicial review before the Federal Court of Appeal of a decision by the Canadian International Trade Tribunal regarding an injury finding on certain fabricated industrial steel components (2020 FCA 58) and the resulting review by the Canadian International Trade Tribunal (NQ-2016-004R).

Baker McKenzie.

- Represented a multinational corporation in connection with regulatory matters in the Canadian the dairy industry.
- Represented a Korean line pipe producer in Normal Value Reviews before the Canada Border Services Agency (LP2 2020 UP2, LP2 2018 UP1).
- Represented a TSX listed company before the President of the Canada Border Services Agency to appeal a final determination in a trade verification audit.
- Represented the Canadian affiliate of a European multinational in voluntary disclosure proceedings before the Canada Border Services Agency regarding valuation adjustments.
- Represented decorative plywood importers in a dumping investigation before the Canada Border Services Agency and the Canadian International Trade Tribunal (NQ-2020-002).
- Represented target company shareholders in an investigation into alleged economic sanctions violations.
- Represented a Canadian affiliate in a cross-border application for involuntary bankruptcy (2021 ONSC 2310).
- Conducted internal investigations for companies regarding complex financial fraud and code of conduct violations.
- Represented POSCO in heavy plate dumping investigation preliminary injury inquiry (PI-2020-001).
- Represented a Canadian importer in preliminary injury proceedings before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal in Concrete Reinforcing Bar (PI-2020-004).
- Represented POSCO to obtain product exclusion requests in the expiry review of Hot Rolled Carbon Steel Plate (RR-2019-001).