

Representative Legal Matters

Ashley Eickhof

- Counsel for global companies and senior executives in international and domestic cartel investigations involving algorithmic collusion, public procurement, price fixing, bid rigging, and labor-market collusion.
- Lead counsel for firetruck manufacturer in antitrust class action litigation in the Eastern District of Wisconsin alleging price fixing and output reduction claims.
- Counsel for Defendant in In re: Concrete and Cement Additives Antitrust Litigation in the Southern District of New York alleging price fixing claims.
- Secured declination for a company allegedly involved in algorithmic collusion.
- Secured a declination for a healthcare technology company in DOJ criminal antitrust investigation.
- Secured a declination for a global fashion company and key executives in cross-border DOJ criminal antitrust investigation.
- Defended internet technology company in FTC consumer protection investigation alleging billions of dollars in consumer harm.
- Counsel for former Chief Executive Officer of a publishing company in antitrust investigation, resulting in no charges.
- Counsel for Italian luxury fashion brand in a no poach class action. Defendants' motion to dismiss was granted and the Second Circuit affirmed.
- Counsel for company before the Department of Justice Antitrust Division and assisted with obtaining conditional leniency in a many-year investigation.
- Counsel to fashion company on compliance with third party subpoenas and trial testimony.
- Counsel for a global urethane manufacturer in antitrust litigation in the Eastern District of New York alleging a group boycott.
- Counsel for Defendant in In re: Hard Disk Drive Suspension Assemblies Antitrust Litigation (MDL 2918) in the Northern District of California alleging price-fixing claims.

Prior to joining Baker McKenzie, Ashley handled the following matters:

- Defended a Fortune 50 client in a complex DOJ investigation into whether the client's participation in an industry-wide trade association standard-setting effort constituted a conspiracy to boycott emerging technologies which the DOJ closed with no enforcement action.

- Counsel for Caterpillar Inc. in a lawsuit alleging the company conspired with a competitor and its own dealers to boycott the distributor of a foreign supplier seeking to enter the United States.
- Counsel for Zydus Pharmaceuticals in an action brought in New Jersey federal court alleging sham litigation in violation of Section 2 of the Sherman Act.
- Defended Fortune 500 medical supply company against criminal investigation by US Attorney's Office relating to sales of restricted pharmaceutical products and related practices.
- Served as DOJ trial counsel in multi-week criminal antitrust trial in the Northern District of California.