

Representative Legal Matters

Creighton Macy

Since joining the Firm, Creighton:

- Advised a global research and development-driven pharmaceutical company on the sale of a prescription drug indicated for the emergency treatment of epileptic children with prolonged acute convulsive seizures to a European leader in pharmaceutical products.
- Represented a global leader in the digital product market in connection with an acquisition of an online course creation and sales platform and one of the biggest online education companies in the United States.
- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of its collaboration agreement with a biopharmaceutical company focused on developing medicines for patients with genetically defined cancers.
- Advised a global home and personal care company on the antitrust aspects of a USD 500 million acquisition of a leading prestige skin-care brand.
- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of a nearly USD 400 million acquisition of a biopharmaceutical company focused on oncolytic immunotherapy treatments for a range of cancers.
- Advised a global shipping company before US DOJ in a cartel investigation that closed without any action.
- Advised a leading specialty chemicals and industrial adhesives manufacturer on the antitrust aspects of a USD 2.5 billion acquisition of a construction chemicals and renovation specialty solutions manufacturer.
- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of a USD 1.95 billion acquisition of a biopharmaceutical company, which further enhanced the company's capacity to provide innovative, specialty therapies for people with disorders of the central nervous system.
- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of a USD 400 million acquisition of a biopharmaceutical company, which further enhanced the company's capacity to provide additional therapeutic potential for the treatment of brain diseases.
- Advised a US global research-based biopharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of a USD 5 billion licensing, collaboration agreement, and equity features transaction that will provide access to a portfolio of innovative drugs in clinical trials, preclinical programs, and proven drug discovery platforms.

- Advised a global pharmaceutical company on the antitrust aspects of a USD 295 million--with the distributions of shares--supply agreement that will provide an exclusive licensing agreement to commercialize a novel combined oral contraceptive product candidate.
- Advised the private equity arm of an asset management company on the antitrust aspects of the USD 230 million sale its interest in one of the largest global providers of executive relocation services.
- Advised a leading cinema operator on the US antitrust aspects with respect to its USD 2.1 billion acquisition by another leading cinema operator, creating one of the world's largest cinema companies.

Prior to joining the Firm, Creighton:

- Advised the acting assistant attorney general, as well as other senior enforcers and prosecutors, on merger, civil non-merger, and criminal matters before the Antitrust Division.
- Served as the Antitrust Division's liaison to the offices of the attorney general, deputy attorney general, and associate attorney generals.
- Served as chief of staff and senior counsel during a number of trial victories, by the Antitrust Division, including its successful merger challenges of two proposed insurance company acquisitions.
- Advised a leading hard-disk-drive manufacturer in its acquisition of another leading manufacturer, which received significant scrutiny from the Federal Trade Commission, as well as the European Commission and MOFCOM in China.
- Represented companies and individuals being investigated for criminal antitrust violations by the Antitrust Division, including in some of the Antitrust Division's most recent international cartel investigations.
- Advised a leading digital cinema firm on a transaction that combined leading digital cinema server firms, in investigations before the Department of Justice and the European Commission.
- Represented a leading search engine during the FTC's civil non-merger investigation, which the FTC closed with a unanimous vote.
- Advised a leading online car auction company on its acquisition of a competitor in an investigation by the Federal Trade Commission.
- Served as trial attorney in the DOJ's investigation and challenge to the proposed combination of major beef packing companies, which was abandoned after the government moved to enjoin the transaction.
- Served as trial attorney in the DOJ's investigations of the proposed combinations of leading music companies and leading movie theater companies, both of which required divestitures to proceed.